

Biographical Information for Jeff Barrie

Jeff Barrie's dream is to build an energy conservation nation by working with households, businesses, schools and communities to reduce their energy usage. Jeff has been producing independent documentary films since 1993, films that show how we are all part of the solution to environmental challenges. His latest film and non-profit project Kilowatt Ours features an award-winning documentary film, a curriculum for K-12 schools, and a new energy savings workshop series for low-income communities in partnership with NES (Nashville Electric Service). Jeff is working on a new film project called "Pedaling a Dream" which he hopes will motivate more people to become involved in creating the clean, green world of our dreams. Jeff lives in Nashville with his wife and co-star of Kilowatt Ours, Heather, and their four year old daughter Lily.
